Dear Sotirios Papatirou,

Congratulations! On behalf of YSA (Youth Service America), I am writing to let you know that you were nominated and subsequently chosen to be an Everyday Young Hero. The staff at YSA was impressed with your passion to end childhood hunger and empowering youth to be active.

YSA highlighted your profile as an “Everyday Young Hero” in the National Service Briefing, a weekly online newsletter with a 30,000+ circulation, in addition to highlighting your work through our social media outlets. YSA recognizes you as a leader improving your community, bringing positive approaches to solve important issues and meeting needs. Your hard work and achievements are highly commendable. You successfully influenced and mobilized your peers and others in the community to take action around very important issues.

YSA wants to work with you to support your efforts year-round, through our tip sheets and service planning guides, in addition to our grants that help fund service projects throughout the country. To learn more about our free tip sheets and grants, visit www.YSA.org.

On behalf of YSA, we thank you again for your continued service to your community and improving the lives of other. We are so pleased to see youth like you changing the world! Thank you for your hard work and dedication. I offer my sincere congratulations and best wishes for your continued success.
